Hello,

I hope this email finds you well. As I have spoken to many of you and told you that I would try to come by at least once every two weeks to see how things are going with your BID and area. This has been one of those weeks that just went crazy. So I am reaching out through email. If there is any problems, please let me know. If we need to speak in person, I can pencil you in next wee some time. Just let me know. I will make an in person visit next time.

Take care and have a great weekend,

Mike
